

Community Justice Partnership (CJP) Manager

Recruitment Pack

Closing Date: 10am, 6th of May 2024

HIGHLAND
THIRD
SECTOR
INTERFACE

Employed by HTSI on behalf of the Highland CJP:

Highland
Community
Justice
Partnership

Hello,

Thank you for your interest in working here at HTSI!

We know that we are biased but working here at the Highland Third Sector Interface is a great experience. We care about our staff team and whether this is just the next step in realising your ambitions in changing the world or you want to make a change in your career and experience something new, we have a lot to offer.

This role in particular is a partnership role and as such you get to be based within HTSI while working to a multi-agency partnership.

As part of our team you will find that first of all we treat you with dignity, we trust you and we believe that you are capable of doing great things. You will be expected to do your role well, to take responsibility and ownership, but you will also receive support and access to training.

Creativity and initiative are highly valued as we believe that it makes a team stronger and that as individuals we are better problem solvers.

We are looking for someone who wants both the chance to make a difference and to experience a working life that is flexible, challenging, rewarding and respectful.

I genuinely look forward to hearing from you and hope to see you through our recruitment process.

Mhairi (Chief Officer)

About Us.

The Highland Third Sector Interface started work in late 2012 and officially launched early 2013. We are funded by the Scottish Government, among others, and are one of a network of 32 other 'Third Sector Interfaces' across Scotland.

What is a TSI?

A Third Sector Interface provides a single point of access for support and advice for the Third Sector within a local area. They have an outcome framework that they have to work within, but how that is done is very much based on local need and diversity within the geography and nature of the Third Sector in that area.

What is the Third Sector

The Third Sector is a generally under used term that encompasses a wide range of charitable, not-for profit enterprise, voluntary led, voluntary involving, unconstituted, constituted, community focused or community interest organisations. It is complex, unique and challenging, while also passionate, grounded and at times a little political. You certainly are never bored working in the breadth and depth of the Third Sector.

About the CJP

The Highland Community Justice Partnership (CJP) was established in 2016 in response to the new Community Justice Scotland Act (2016). The role of the Partnership is simply to work better together in partnership to help prevent offending and reduce reoffending.

Who is a member of the CJP?

- The Highland Council (1 Elected Member)
- Local Authority (Criminal Justice Social Work and Housing)
- Police Scotland
- Scottish Prisons Service
- Crown Office Procurator Fiscal Service
- Scottish Courts & Tribunals Service
- Scottish Fire and Rescue Service
- NHS Highland
- Skills Development Scotland
- Victim Support Scotland
- DWP
- SCRA
- HADP
- Third Sector Interface and representatives from the wider third sector
- Apex Highland, Families Outside and RASASH.

How does the CJP Work?

The CJP meets quarterly and otherwise as required. Technically it is a subgroup of the Highland Community Planning Partnership and the Chair attends the CPP to input on behalf of the CJP.

The CJP has a Partnership Manager and an independent Chair that are both employed through HTSI on behalf of the partnership.

The CJP reports nationally to Community Justice Scotland and provides them with an annual report, a strategic plan and other documents and assurance as required by CJS and the Scottish Government. There is a small grant to support the work of the CJP annually.
